

Hampton Beach Seafood & Craft Festival

$60.00

Transportation Only

September 12, 2009

Hampton Beach is famous for its miles of white, sandy beaches and picturesque boardwalk, but the Annual Seafood Festival is also a popular attraction. Now in its 19th year, the festival continues to grow and has become one of Hampton Beach's largest attractions. At the festival you will find vending tents, cooking tents, and an arts and crafts tent. There will be entertainment on the Memorial Stage and the Seashell Stage. Awards are given for the Best Barbecue, Best Clam Chowder, Best Lobster Roll, Best Fried Dough, and Best Spirit. You'll have time to sunbathe on the beach, stroll along the boardwalk, eat lots of delicious seafood, or browse through the shops.
