

San Gennaro Festival

Each September New York City's "Little Italy" comes alive with a true "Italian Festa", the Feast of San Gennaro. Take a walk down Mulberry Street and the streets along it that are lined with carnival games, vendors, restaurants, and shops. Be sure to try the Italian sausage and peppers, cheese, calzones, pizzas, homemade pasta, Italian pastries and much more found at the food vendors. Or, you may decide to sit at one of the sidewalk cafes where you can relax, enjoy a cappuccino, and watch the world go by, Mediterranean Style. This festival is a very popular tour with our passengers as everyone becomes Italian during the event!
